

I heartedly support NJ's DO NOT CALL program. Please do not weaken it. Someone has to protect us from the intrusive onslaught into our homes from people seeking to abuse our time and sap our resources. Sales people should not have the right to usurp our time and attention from our lives when they find it convenient to interrupt.

There are many ways they can market their products without ruining our home lives.